F. Townserd. For choice and elegent litterature, high moral tone, peculiar adaptation to the home circles of our land, freshness, originality and cheapness, this Magazine is acknowledged, on all hands, to be without a rival. It is equal in the beauty of its typography and the richness of its embellishments to the most ambitious and dearest of our Magazines, while it claims to lead all of them in many essential features. For correctness and exquisite beauty, its colored steel fashion plates were unrivalled in 1857. They will maintain this superiority in 1858.
